

Florence Bindelle

As Secretary General at EuropeanIssuers since 2016, Florence Bindelle leads the organisation with the objective of representing the interests of companies, including smaller ones, listed on the stock exchanges in Europe and ensuring that EU policy creates an environment in which companies can raise capital through the public markets and can deliver growth over the longer-term. Florence combines an experience in the business and the trade EU affairs sector. She developed and reinforced the positioning of the Issuers on several files at EU level building on the expertise of the network of national experts analysing the implications of capital market regulation for the non-financial corporates in company law, corporate governance, and financial regulation. She established the Advisory Council of EuropeanIssuers composed of High level representatives of Issuers community from financial to non-financial sectors.

Prior to this, she was the executive director of the Federation of European Risk Management Associations (FERMA), where she was responsible for the management of relations with the European Commission and other European organisations, as well as communication and the organisation of events. She also worked in the Brussels office of MAPFRE Re on liability portfolio management and treaty analysis. She holds a degree in law, an executive MBA and a post-graduate degree in law and economics as well as a certificate in risk management. She is also Vice President of the Federation of European and international associations established in Belgium (FAIB) and Honorary President of European Society of Association Executives (ESAE).
