

Curriculum vitae

Dr. Gábor Laki

Director of Capital Markets and Market Supervision

Central Bank of Hungary (MNB)

Dr. Gábor Laki was appointed as Director of Capital Markets and Market Supervision at the Central Bank of Hungary (Magyar Nemzeti Bank – MNB) on December 2017. He is currently responsible for managing two departments. The Market Surveillance and Issuer Department is responsible for market surveillance procedures related to market abuse cases and supervision of issuers of Budapest Stock Exchange (BSE). The Capital Markets Supervision Department is responsible for prudential supervision of investment firms, funds and trading venues. He also participates in the work of supervisory colleges in accordance with article 18 of EMIR. He has previously worked in various positions as economist and legal expert including PwC, EY, Ministry of Finance in Hungary.