

Piotr Koziński

Managing Director for Capital Market Supervision Division
Komisja Nadzoru Finansowego/KNF (Polish Financial Supervision Authority)

A graduate of the Faculty of Economic Sciences at the University of Warsaw. He is a seasoned senior official and manager with extensive experience in negotiations across both business and political arenas. He has been involved with the capital market since 2001, starting with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In the following years, he served at the Ministry of Finance in the department overseeing financial market regulation, leading the Capital Market Division. He joined the KNF in March 2019 and managed the Department of Investment Funds and Pension Funds for almost 5 years. Currently, he holds the position of Managing Director for Capital Market Supervision Division at the Polish Financial Supervision Authority.