

Rosa Armesto

Rosa Armesto is Director General of the Federation of European Securities Exchanges (FESE), the trade association of exchanges in Europe. She is also a lecturer in financial market infrastructures at Solvay Brussels School of Economics & Management (BE).

Before her appointment as Director General of FESE, she was Deputy Director General for 6 years. Prior to that, she spent 4 years as a Member of the Management Team and Head of Public Affairs and Communications of Insurance Europe, the trade association of the European insurance sector. In her earlier career, she was Head of Public and Regulatory Affairs of FESE and held different responsibilities prior to re-joining FESE. She started her professional career in Eurostat (the Statistical office of the European Commission) in Luxembourg.

She has almost 20 years of professional experience in EU affairs for financial services. Her expertise includes a variety of important financial regulatory dossiers, including MiFID/MiFIR, Capital Markets Union, Sustainable Finance, Benchmarks, and the Digital Package. She is also familiar with Solvency II, PRIIPs, IDD and other insurance related files.

She holds a MSc in Economics (major in Econometrics) from the University of Zaragoza (ES) & University of Groningen (NL), a BSc in Statistics from the University of Zaragoza (ES), and a professional degree in Piano from Conservatory of Teruel (ES). She speaks English, French and Spanish.

