

Dariusz Adamski is the Deputy Chair of the KNF Board responsible for capital markets supervision.

He is a professor of Law associated with the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics at the University of Wrocław. His areas of expertise are Polish and European economic and financial law and governance. Dariusz Adamski is the Fulbright Foundation's scholarship holder, awardee of the ECB Legal Research Programme (LRP) scholarship and of the Fernand Braudel Senior Fellowship at the European University Institute in Florence. He is also a Member of the Academic Board of the European Banking Institute in Frankfurt am Main and of the EMU Lab Advisory Committee. Author of numerous research papers and supervisor of doctoral dissertations in the field of financial markets. A frequent speaker at domestic and international sectoral conferences.

In years 2024-2025 Director of the Institute of Finance of the Polish Ministry of Finance.