

Gabriel-Ioan Avrănescu

First Vice President

Financial Services Authority, Romania

Gabriel-Ioan Avrănescu has served as First Vice President of the Financial Supervisory Authority of Romania (ASF) since December 2023 and, since August 2025, has also been responsible for coordinating the Financial Instruments and Investments Sector.

He holds a law degree from the University of Bucharest, a master's degree in project management from the National University of Political Studies and Public Administration, and a PhD in Management from the University of Craiova.

He began his career in public administration and European affairs in the mid-2000s and built extensive experience within central and local government, including senior positions in the National Agency for Fiscal Administration and as Prefect of Galați County between 2019 and 2020. He later served as a member of the Romanian Parliament from 2020 to 2023, where he was active on committees for public administration and economic policy.

At ASF Romania, Gabriel-Ioan Avrănescu is responsible for strategic coordination and has played a key role in capital market development, the digital transformation of supervision, financial education initiatives, and the implementation of European regulatory frameworks, while also overseeing investor protection and market stability.
