

ANDREAS GUSTAFSSON

Andreas Gustafsson is Senior Vice President & General Counsel Europe Nasdaq and is managing the group that provides legal and regulatory support for Nasdaq's European regulated entities including Exchanges, CCPs, CSDs and investment firms.

The responsibility also includes oversight of the Trading and Issuer Surveillance department, which monitors members and issuers on the Nordic Exchanges, in compliance of EU regulations, and covers all major governmental policy directives in Europe.

Andreas has been with Nasdaq since 2005 and previously was with the Swedish FSA, in which he was involved in European policy working groups such as MiFID. He is the Chairman of Nasdaq Stockholm AB, member of the Listing Committee, ESMA Securities and Markets Stakeholder Group and CityUK International Regulatory Strategy Group.