

Anna Maria Romano

Anna Maria is a representative of FISAC/CGIL, an Italian Union in Finance and Insurance sectors. Member of the National Board and of the International Department - European area, she was FISAC-CGIL Tuscany General Secretary from 2009 to 2016, she was appointed Coordinator of International Policy of CGIL-Tuscany in March 2016.

She has been a UNI Global Auditor since 2014 and she has acted as Accounting Expert for trade Unions in different European projects in order to plan and define needs assessment and creation of training modules.

She has been the Head of Tuscany FISAC/CGIL Ethics and Finance Dept for nine years. Her focus was on the impact of Finance and Banking on the principles of sustainable development, to promote the culture of social responsibility in the practice of financial investment in Italy among employees' representatives, students and civil society as a whole; to increase the knowledge and awareness of the importance of socially responsible financial activities to create a fairer Social Added Value; to elaborate innovative proposals and furthering dialogue between different stakeholders, as well.

In that role Anna Maria joined the Stakeholders Group of Monte dei Paschi Bank Asset Management Company (later AXA) in 2002.

Anna Maria has had a multiannual commitment in a Policy of Gender Equality both in Trade Unions and Public Institutions.

She has a degree in Economics and Banking at the University of Siena and a Master degree in Business Management at IFOR-Bocconi in Milan.
