

Urban Funered

Urban Funered is the Chief Executive Officer of the Swedish Securities Markets Association (Svensk Värdepappersmarknad) since February 2019 and has 30+ years of experience from the private financial and legal sector as well as from the public sector.

Urban Funered has during his career held senior positions in leading law firms, asset managers, and investment banks in Stockholm, London, Vienna, and New York, after starting his career as a Judge Clerk in Malmö and Helsingborg in the south of Sweden.

Urban Funered has held senior positions in the public sector incl. as State Secretary and Senior Advisor to the Swedish Minister for Financial Markets and as Minister (Diplomat) and Financial Services Attaché at the Swedish Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels.

Urban Funered holds LL.M. and Post-Graduate Degrees in Civil, Banking and Financial law from the University of Lund in Sweden and Queen Mary & Westfield College of London University, and a Bachelor of Business Administration and Economics Degree from the School of Economics and Management at Lund University in Sweden.

The Swedish Securities Markets Association was founded in 1908 and represents 24 banks, investment banks and brokers active in Swedish securities markets, for further information please visit www.svenskvardepappersmarknad.se.