

Christiane Hölz

Christiane is an attorney having studied in Germany and in France. She is Managing Director of Deutsche Schutzvereinigung für Wertpapierbesitz e.V. (DSW). DSW is the leading German investor association - a non-profit organisation founded in 1947 with more than 30.000 individual investors as members. The main objective of DSW is the protection of the interests of individual investors, including but not limited to shareholders, fundholders, and bondholders. At DSW, Christiane is primarily responsible for (international) Corporate Governance issues, as well as for DSW's participation in legislative procedures regarding German and European regulation (focused on securities regulation, banking and finance law).

At DSW, Christiane leads the corporate governance research team and is responsible for DSW's participation in legislative procedures regarding German and European regulation (focused on securities regulation, banking, tax and finance law). Further tasks include giving legal advice to members of DSW and representation of shareholders at general meetings in Germany and Europe. She was member and Vice Chair of the EU Commission's Financial Services User Group (FSUG) between 2011 and 2021 and served in various advisory bodies of European authorities.

Christiane graduated in Law from the University of Cologne (First State Exam) and obtained her bar exam at the Higher Regional Court in Düsseldorf (Second State Exam).
