

Jean-Marc Servat

Jean-Marc Servat, 50, is the Chairman of the European Association of Corporate Treasurers (EACT), a non-for-profit grouping of 21 national treasury associations active in 18 EU countries.

Jean-Marc has a 25 year diverse career in treasury and finance departments of multinational corporations in both technical and managerial roles. In his last corporate role, he was the head of Treasury for Cisco Systems in EMEA and Asia Pacific. Between 2001 and 2005, he was with Nokia in global financial risk management roles and prior to this, was 10 years with Dow Chemical in various financial positions in Europe. He also has some sell side experience with Citigroup and commodity experience as the head of Treasury of an oil trading company before joining Cisco. He recently developed a consulting practice and has provided expert advice on legal matters with his combined corporate experience and his knowledge of derivatives.

Jean-Marc holds a MSc. in Management from Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) in Paris.

He is a regular speaker at international treasury conferences.

Mr. Servat represents the EACT and Business Europe with the ECB's European Retail Payment Board (ERPB, formerly SEPA council).