

Chris Vervliet

Chris Vervliet is a delegate of the Belgian trade union ACV Puls and deputy secretary of the European Works Council of KBC (Belgian/Central European financial institution).

At European level, he is also a member of the Working Group Regulation of the European trade union federation UNI Europa Finance. In the latter capacity, he has over the past years participated at sixmonthly meeting with DG FISMA on financial regulation, with particular focus on the impact for financial sector employees.

He holds a Doctorate in Social Sciences, Master of Business Administration, Master of Arts in Economics and Master of Arts in Political Sciences.

Professionally, his focus has been on risk management, starting in 1987 as country and industry risk analyst at CERA Bank and currently being active at the risk department of KBC Asset Management (with focus on market risk).

Chris Vervliet is also mayor of the municipality of Boutersem, Belgium and free-lance writer, having published on science, tourism, philosophy.