

Benoît de Juvigny's biography

Benoît de Juvigny was appointed on December 1st, 2012 Secretary General of the AMF, Autorité des Marchés Financiers.

Benoît de Juvigny, 57, a graduate of HEC, French business school, and IEP in Paris and a former student at ENA, began his career as Inspector of Finances at the French Ministry of Economy and Finance in 1984 and at the French Prime Minister's office where he held various positions. In 1991 he joined Crédit Lyonnais where he held posts specialising in corporate banking and then mergers and acquisitions in Paris and Brussels. In 2000 he joined Herve Bank where he was a member of the Executive Committee. In 2001, he was responsible for developing the strategic plan for the CCF-HSBC group. He became CEO of Dewaay Bank (Brussels) in 2002. In October 2004 he joined the AMF as the Head of Investment Service Providers and Products. In 2006 he was appointed Managing Director of Corporate Finance and, as of 2011, was at the head of both Corporate Finance and Corporate Accounting and Auditing.