

Colm Kincaid was appointed Director of Securities and Markets Supervision in the Central Bank of Ireland on 16 January 2018. He oversees both primary and secondary markets supervision, as well as the authorisation and supervision of regulated investment funds and the approval of prospectuses. He is also responsible for conduct supervision under MAR, MIFID II/MiFIR, the Transparency Directive and Short-Selling Regulation, as well as supervision of counterparties' compliance with EMIR.

Prior to this role, Colm was Head of Consumer Protection: Policy & Authorisations. Previous to this he practised as a solicitor, both as legal advisor to the Central Bank of Ireland and in commercial practice in London and in Dublin.