

Colm Kincaid was appointed Director of Consumer Protection on 1 October 2021. He oversees retail conduct supervision including in the field of MiFID firms and retail intermediaries. Prior to this Colm was Director of Securities and Markets Supervision overseeing the supervision of investment funds, trading venues and various securities market facing mandates. He also served previously as Head of Consumer Protection: Policy & Authorisations at the Central Bank of Ireland and practised as a solicitor, both as legal advisor to the Central Bank of Ireland and in commercial practice in London and Dublin.