1 Executive Summary

Reasons for publication

One of the objectives of the CRA Regulation is to increase competition in the markets for credit ratings by encouraging issuers or related third parties to use smaller credit rating agencies.

In this regard, Article 8d of the CRA Regulation requires issuers or related third parties, who intend to appoint two or more CRAs to rate an issuance or entity, to consider appointing at least one CRA with no more than 10% of the total market share in the EU.

In the event that the issuer or related third party does not appoint a CRA with no more than 10% total market share, the Regulation (Article 8d) requires that this decision is documented. The obligations of Article 8d are supervised and enforced at a national level by the relevant sectoral competent authorities.

In order to assist issuers or related third parties with this assessment, Article 8d of the CRA Regulation requires ESMA to publish a list of registered CRAs and the types of credit ratings they issue, together with a calculation of CRAs' revenues from credit rating activities and ancillary services at group level.

Contents

Sections 2 and 3 of this document provide background and guidance as to how the market share calculation should be used by issuers or related third parties. Section 4 provides information on how the market share is calculated while Section 5 provides information with regards to its dates of application. Section 6 provides a list of CRAs registered in the EU alongside their percentage of total market share. Section 7 provides an overview of the type of credit ratings offered by each CRA registered in the EU. Section 8 provides a breakdown by type of credit ratings as a percentage of each CRA's overall issuance. Section 9 provides details on the Common Supervisory Approach and Standard Form adopted by ESMA Members in respect of Article 8d. Finally, Section 10 provides contact details should users of this document wish to provide comments or feedback.

2 Legal Basis

1. As set out in recital 11 of the CRA Regulation, the purpose of Article 8d is to increase competition in the credit rating industry by encouraging issuers or related third parties to consider the appointment of smaller CRAs.
2. In this regard, Article 8d(1) states that where issuers or related third parties intend to use two or more CRAs, they should consider appointing one CRA with less than 10% market share in the EU. In the event that the issuer or related third party does not appoint at least one CRA with less than a 10% market share, this decision shall be documented.
3. The market share calculation is required to be published by ESMA on an annual basis in accordance with Article 8d(2). Its purpose is to assist issuers or related third parties in their identification of CRAs with no more than 10% total market share.
4. In this regard, credit rating activities refer to the definition of credit ratings provided in Article 3(1)(a) of the CRA Regulation. These activities involve giving opinions, regarding the creditworthiness of an entity, a debt or financial obligation, debt security, preferred share or other financial instrument, or an issuer of such a debt or financial obligation, debt security, preferred share or other financial instrument.
5. The term ancillary service is set out in the second paragraph of Point 4, Section B of Annex I of the CRA Regulation, which states that “A credit rating agency may provide services other than the issue of credit ratings (ancillary services). Ancillary services are not part of credit rating activities; they comprise market forecasts, estimates of economic trends, pricing analysis and other general data analysis as well as distribution services”
6. As set out in Article 25a of the CRA Regulation, the supervision and enforcement of Article 8d is the responsibility of national sectoral competent authorities. For further details please refer to Section 9 of this document.

3 How to use this Document

7. In order to identify a CRA with less than 10% total market share, issuers or related third parties should refer to Section 6, which provides a list of registered CRAs indicating total market share for each.
8. In order to identify the different types of credit ratings offered by each CRA, issuers or related third parties should refer to Section 7 which provides an overview of the types of credit ratings issued by each EU registered CRA. For a breakdown of type of credit rating as % of CRA's overall issuance, issuers or related third parties should refer to Section 8.
9. In order to find out more about the Supervisory Briefing for Article 8d adopted by ESMA, issuers or related third parties should refer to Section 7 of this document. This Supervisory Briefing includes a Standard Form that can be used by issuers or related third parties on a voluntary basis. This Standard Form is relevant for issuers or related third parties who choose not to appoint a CRA with less than 10% total market share and are required to document this decision.

4 How CRAs' Market Shares are calculated

10. In accordance with Article 8d(3) of the CRA Regulation, the total market share for each registered CRA is calculated with reference to annual turnover generated from credit rating activities and ancillary services at group level in the EU for that CRA or group of CRAs¹²³.
11. For the purpose of this exercise, total market share has been calculated based on CRA's audited financial statements with reference to the annual turnover from the credit rating activities and ancillary services for the calendar year 2016.

5 Validity and Applicability

12. This market share calculation is valid for use from its date of publication and applicable until the date of publication of the next Market Share Calculation in 2018.

9 Supervisory Briefing for Article 8d

19. As set out in Article 25a of the CRA Regulation, Article 8d is supervised and enforced at Member State level by Sectoral Competent Authorities (SCAs). In this regard, it is the role of ESMA to promote supervisory convergence by encouraging the SCAs to adopt common approaches to the supervision and enforcement of this article.
20. On 6 April 2016 ESMA published a Supervisory Briefing which provided further information on the implementation of Article 8d at a national level as well as a voluntary template for documenting the non-appointment of a CRA with less than 10% market share.
21. The purpose of this Supervisory Briefing is to provide guidance to SCAs in relation to the application of Articles 8c and 8d of the CRA Regulation and promote a common supervisory approach and enforcement of these Articles. In this regard, the Supervisory Briefing includes the following:
 - A Common Supervisory Approach as to which issuers or related third parties are covered by Article 8c and 8d; and,
 - A Standard Form for documenting the decision not to appoint a CRA with less than 10% total market share in accordance with article 8d.
22. The purpose of the Common Supervisory Approach is to assist SCAs as well as issuers or related third parties by clearly establishing who should be prioritised for supervision and enforcement under these Articles.
23. The Standard Form will assist SCAs by promoting standardised and consistent data across different issuers or related third parties. It will also assist issuers or related third parties by providing clarity as to how they may meet their regulatory obligations under these Articles and simplify their internal processes by removing the need to develop in-house templates for documenting compliance under Article 8d.
24. For issuers or related third parties who would like to know more about the Common Supervisory Approach and the Standard Form, both items are available on ESMA's website⁹.

10 Questions and Feedback
