

G.J. (Gerben) Everts (1971)

Gerben Everts is Board Member of the AFM, starting in 2011. His main areas of responsibility are: regulation of capital markets, infrastructure, asset management, financial reporting, corporate governance and auditing.

He is a member of the IOSCO Board, AFM representative within IFIAR and he is currently chairing the Monitoring Group (on audit standard setting and audit quality). Furthermore, he is chair of IOSCO's Audit Quality Task Force and IFIAR's Investor and Other Stakeholders Working Group.

He came from Dutch asset manager APG and held several ancillary (inter)national positions in the field of financial reporting, auditing and corporate governance for representative organizations of institutional investors.

From 2002 to 2006 he worked in Brussels for the European Commission, DG Internal Market. There he was directly involved, inter alia, in the coordination of the Financial Services Action Plan of Commissioner Frits Bolkestein.

Everts worked from 1998 to 2002 at the Dutch Treasury where he was involved in the introduction of independent public supervision on financial reporting, market abuse legislation and EU Council negotiations on IFRS and takeover bids.

Everts studied both Economics and Law from 1989 to 1996, started as an auditor at Price Waterhouse, and became CPA in 1998.

Everts is married and has two sons.
