

GABRIELA FIGUEIREDO DIAS – BIOGRAPHY NOTE

GABRIELA FIGUEIREDO DIAS is the Chairperson of the Portuguese Securities Regulator (CMVM) since December 2016.

She has started her professional activity as legal attorney and advisor. She joined the CMVM in 2007 as deputy director of the International Affairs and Regulatory Policy Department. Between 2010 and 2013 she became vice-director, then director of the Issuers, Markets and Information Department. In 2014 she was mandated with the direction of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Department, being at the same time the advisor of the Board of Directors. In July 2015 she was appointed Vice-President of the CMVM. Apart from her successful career at the Portuguese Securities Market Commission, She was also actively involved in the academic field for more than 20 years, namely as an assistant professor at the Faculty of Law of Coimbra University.

As a representative of the CMVM, she has participated in various international fora, such as the high level groups of ESMA, IOSCO and the corporate governance related working groups of the OECD, among others. She was recently elected as Vice-President of the Corporate Governance Committee of the OECD.