

Short presentation (CV) of Ms. Anka Čadež

Anka is a former longtime employee of the Securities Market Agency. Before becoming Director and Chairwoman of the Agency's Council she was Deputy Director and Head of the Capital Market Department at the Securities Market Agency from 2008 to 2018. She also served as a member of the Agency's Council in the mandate from 2008 to 2013. For a short time period in 2015 she was appointed Agency's Acting Director.

Anka, a lawyer, has an excellent knowledge of field of work as well as the characteristics of the capital market and the wider financial system. Among other things, Anka worked at the Slovenian Development Corporation and at the Ministry of Finance where she worked in the group of experts for the management and supervision of the merger procedure of Nova kreditna banka Maribor and Postal bank.

Anka's responsibilities as Director and Chairwoman of the Council include representation of the Agency, management of the Agency's operations and organization of its work. As a Chairwoman of the Council Anka will convene and chair Council's meetings.

Anka was appointed by the Slovenian Parliament for a 6-year term ending 30 March 2027, with the possibility of reappointment.

31 March – present	Director and Chairwoman, ATVP
January 2019 – March 2021	Assistant Director for General Affairs, National Institute of Chemistry
2019	Senior Advisor at the Capital Market and Takeovers Division, ATVP
2008 - 2018	Deputy Director, Head of the Capital Market Department, ATVP
March – April 2015	Acting Director, ATVP
2008 - 2013	Member of the Council of the Securities Market Agency
2001 – 2008	Legal Advisor, Ministry of Finance, Directorate for Public Assets
1996 - 2001	Legal Advisor, Slovenian Development Corporation d.d.
1994 – 1996	Legal Assistant, District Court in Ljubljana