

Curriculum Vitae

Peter Tkáč

Peter Tkáč is General Director of the Securities Market, Insurance and Pension Savings Supervision Department at the National Bank of Slovakia with responsibility for the supervision of investment firms, asset management companies, the Stock Exchange, the Central Depository, issuers, pension funds, insurance companies and financial intermediaries and financial advisors. Peter represents National Bank of Slovakia in various committees at national and international level.

Prior to appointment, Peter was head of Financial Intermediary and Financial Advisory Supervision Section at the National Bank of Slovakia and is a long-time experienced supervisor.

Peter graduated from the Comenius University in Bratislava with a law degree. He remains active in the academic environment and is an author of various papers related mainly to financial law issues. He earned his PhD. degree for the research of causes and implications of 2009 financial crises with the impact on financial market regulation.