ESMA Consultation Paper on PR Level 2, July 2017

Format and content Paper:

| No | Page | Section | Comment                                          |                                          |
|----|------|---------|--------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
|    |      |         |                                                  | FINANCEDENMARK                       |
| 1  | 16   | 23      | It should be allowed to use legal disclaimers    |                                          |
|    |      |         | in the cover note in accordance with cur-        |                                          |
|    |      |         | rent documentation practice. Limiting the        |                                          |
|    |      |         | cover note to 3 pages is a problem given         |                                          |
|    |      |         | the need for – in addition to the short          | Memo                                     |
|    |      |         | presentation of the transaction – (i) legal      |                                          |
|    |      |         | disclaimers required by the underwriting         | Soptomber 11, 2017                       |
|    |      |         | banks, (ii) various legends relating to non-PR   | September 11, 2017Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
|    |      |         | related legislation such as MAR stabilisation    |                                          |
|    |      |         | legend, PRIIPs selling restriction and poten-    |                                          |
|    |      |         | tially MIFID II product governance related       |                                          |
|    |      |         | selling restrictions including, but not limited  |                                          |
|    |      |         | to credit institutions regulatory capital issues |                                          |
|    |      |         | such as CoCos and (iii) "forward looking         |                                          |
|    |      |         | statements" legend.                              |                                          |
|    |      |         | We consider that the cover note should be        |                                          |
|    |      |         | limited to 5 pages as this strike a balance      |                                          |
|    |      |         | between the needs of issuers and investors.      |                                          |
| 2  | 17   | 26      | A precise break down of the proceeds is          |                                          |
| 2  |      | 20      | deemed too burdensome for issuers and            |                                          |
|    |      |         | advisers in terms of documentation work.         |                                          |
|    |      |         |                                                  |                                          |
|    |      |         | Unless a third party involved in the transac-    |                                          |
|    |      |         | tion has an interest in the use of the pro-      |                                          |
|    |      |         | ceeds – which would anyway have to be            |                                          |
|    |      |         | disclosed as an interest in the issue – or the   |                                          |
|    |      |         | debt issued is "green bonds" or a similar in-    |                                          |
|    |      |         | strument, a statement that the net pro-          |                                          |
|    |      |         | ceeds will be used for "General corporate        |                                          |

mo

|   |    |      | limitation on pages (in practice it would probably be around 5 pages).       |
|---|----|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6 | 30 | Ques | could be included in the final terms.Q1: Cover note not subject to mandatory |
| 5 | 18 | 34   | It would be welcomed if more information                                     |
|   |    |      | comparisons between different instruments.                                   |
|   |    |      | ble placeholders/information facilitates                                     |
|   |    |      | their views is that not deleting not applica-                                |
|   |    |      | ble". Investors have previously stated that                                  |
|   |    |      | placeholders/information as "Not Applica-                                    |
|   |    |      | well-established practice of referring to                                    |
| 4 | 18 | 33   | Issuers should be allowed to continue the                                    |
|   |    |      |                                                                              |
|   |    |      | factors are included.                                                        |
|   |    |      | advisers and investors, including where risk                                 |
|   |    |      | well-established format known to issuers,                                    |
|   |    |      | Issuer should still be permitted to use this                                 |
|   |    |      | under the current Prospectus Regulation.                                     |
|   |    |      | count the relevant disclosure requirements                                   |
|   |    |      | ket practice format which takes into ac-                                     |
|   |    |      | debt capital markets (EMTN) follows a mar-                                   |
|   |    |      | standalone prospectuses in the European                                      |
| 3 | 17 | 27   | The format for base prospectuses and                                         |
|   |    |      |                                                                              |
|   |    |      | the issuer's control.                                                        |
|   |    |      | different use is due to circumstances out of                                 |
|   |    |      | item which could be a situation where the                                    |
|   |    |      | pose than expressed in a specific disclosure                                 |
|   |    |      | the proceeds are used for a different pur-                                   |
|   |    |      |                                                                              |

Memo

| 8 | 75  | 120 | Inclusion of profit forecast for debt issues                                                 |    |
|---|-----|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
|   |     |     |                                                                                              |    |
|   |     |     | tuting.                                                                                      |    |
|   |     |     | pal investment items which they are substi-                                                  |    |
|   |     |     | pose the issuer to liability risk. The disclosure items seem more onerous than the princi-   |    |
|   |     |     | ward –looking statements which may ex-                                                       |    |
|   |     |     | denominations would include certain for-                                                     |    |
|   |     |     | quirements and funding structure for retail                                                  |    |
| 7 | 74  | 118 | Disclosure requirements on borrowing re-                                                     |    |
| 7 | 7.4 | 110 |                                                                                              |    |
|   |     |     | sting regime is sufficient.                                                                  |    |
|   |     |     | and potential liability risk for issuers. The exi-                                           |    |
|   |     |     | Q5: Maybe for investors but burdensome                                                       |    |
|   |     |     |                                                                                              |    |
|   |     |     | market precedent driven format.                                                              |    |
|   |     |     | lows a standard format which could be a                                                      |    |
|   |     |     | Q4: It would make investor comparisons be-tween different issuers easier if the URD fol- |    |
|   |     |     | O4: It would make investor comparisons be                                                    |    |
|   |     |     | summary in case this should be regulated.                                                    | De |
|   |     |     | risk factors should be located after the                                                     | Se |
|   |     |     | Q3: We suggest that information regarding                                                    |    |
|   |     |     |                                                                                              | N  |
|   |     |     | fail to understand the use.                                                                  |    |
|   |     |     | leged liability claims from investors if they                                                |    |
|   |     |     | tus" seems like too much documentationwork for issuers and could also lead to al-        |    |
|   |     |     | ther section like "How to use the Prospec-                                                   |    |
|   |     |     | more extensive issuer disclosure why a fur-                                                  |    |
|   |     |     | summary – potentially a PRIIPs KID- and                                                      |    |
|   |     |     | standalone prospectuses already include a                                                    |    |
|   |     |     |                                                                                              |    |

September 11, 2017 Doc. no. 573310-v1

|    |    |      | should be optional. It does not seem to beof the same relevance and importance fora debt investor as for an equity investor. If aforecast or estimate is outstanding it wouldmost likely be publicly available and henceaccessible by retail investors via otherchannels e.g. the issuer's financial state-ments.                                                                                                          |                                                         |
|----|----|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| 9  | 87 | Ques | Q28: Information about the changes in theissuer's borrowings can be assessed by acomparison of the balance sheet of the is-suer from year to year. It could impose theissuer to liability if the issuer provides state-ments with respect to its expectations re-garding the future financing of its activities.Q30: Yes, good initiative.Q31: The inclusion of profit forecasts or es-timates should be optional. | MemoSeptember 11, 2017Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
| 10 | 96 | Ques | Q35: Yes, good initiative.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                         |
| 11 | 97 | 134  | It may very well be that it is out the controlof the issuer whether an investor has to payfor access to information regarding the per-formance of the underlying as informationregarding the relevant IBOR for the floatingrate is often published by a screen rate ser-vice. If such screen rate service charge asubscription fee from persons it does notseem fair that the issuer would have to re-                 |                                                         |

|    |     |      | imburse the investor for such charge by the   |
|----|-----|------|-----------------------------------------------|
|    |     |      |                                               |
|    |     |      | service.                                      |
| 12 | 100 | 2.1  | Pick factor 2.1a) requires disclosure on "the |
| ΙZ | 100 | 2.1  | Risk factor 2.1a) requires disclosure on "the |
|    |     |      | expected size and timing of payments to       |
|    |     |      | holders". It does not seem possible for an    |
|    |     |      | issuer to make any statement to this effect   |
|    |     |      | as at the date of the relevant base pro-      |
|    |     |      | spectus or standalone prospectus.             |
| 13 | 100 | 3.2  | The very detailed requirements regarding      |
|    |     |      | breakdown of proceeds and expenses            |
|    |     |      | seem too onerous on issuers. The priority of  |
|    |     |      | uses may subsequently change due to rea-      |
|    |     |      | sons which the issuer may not control.        |
|    |     |      |                                               |
| 14 | 101 | 4.3  | The fourth and last section in 4.2 seems to   |
|    |     |      | deviate from Article 17 (1)(b) in the new     |
|    |     |      | Prospectus Regulation in providing the in-    |
|    |     |      | vestors with a "walk-away right" even if the  |
|    |     |      | issuer discloses the information in Article   |
|    |     |      | 17(1)(b)(i) or (ii) which would otherwise     |
|    |     |      | make the walk-away right requirement in       |
|    |     |      | Article 17(1)(a) not applicable.              |
|    |     |      |                                               |
| 15 | 103 | 4.10 | The issuer may not control – even though      |
|    |     |      | contractual terms to this effect can be in-   |
|    |     |      | cluded in trust deeds and similar docu-       |
|    |     |      | ments - whether the representative of the     |
|    |     |      | holders provide all relevant information and  |
|    |     |      | documentation free of charges. It does not    |
|    |     |      | seem fair that the issuer would have to re-   |
|    |     |      | 1                                             |

Memo

|    |     |      | representative.                               |                                          |
|----|-----|------|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
|    |     |      |                                               |                                          |
| 16 | 107 | Ques | Q38: Yes, good initiative.                    |                                          |
|    |     |      | Q39: No negative consequences with re-        |                                          |
|    |     |      | spect to electronic availability, but charges |                                          |
|    |     |      | for getting access to the information can     |                                          |
|    |     |      | be an issue.                                  |                                          |
|    |     |      | Q40: There should not be any differences in   | Memo                                     |
|    |     |      | terms of expenses irrespective of whether     |                                          |
|    |     |      | they are directly payable in cash or wheth-   | C                                        |
|    |     |      | er they are paid via a higher purchase        | September 11, 2017Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
|    |     |      | price.                                        |                                          |
| 17 | 109 | 2.1  | Risk factor 2.1a) requires disclosure on "the |                                          |
|    |     |      | expected size and timing of payments to       |                                          |
|    |     |      | holders". It does not seem possible for an    |                                          |
|    |     |      | issuer to make any statement to this effect   |                                          |
|    |     |      | as at the date of the relevant base pro-      |                                          |
|    |     |      | spectus or standalone prospectus.             |                                          |
| 18 | 110 | 3.2  | A statement that the net proceeds will be     |                                          |
|    |     |      | used for "General corporate purposes"         |                                          |
|    |     |      | should suffice and more extensive disclo-     |                                          |
|    |     |      | sure optional.                                |                                          |
| 19 | 111 | 4.11 | The issuer may not control – even though      |                                          |
|    |     |      | contractual terms to this effect can be in-   |                                          |
|    |     |      | cluded in trust deeds and similar docu-       |                                          |
|    |     |      | ments - whether the representative of the     |                                          |
|    |     |      | holders provide all relevant information and  |                                          |
|    |     |      | documentation free of charges. It does not    |                                          |

|    | 1   |      |                                                |
|----|-----|------|------------------------------------------------|
|    |     |      | seem fair that the issuer would have to re-    |
|    |     |      | imburse the investor for such charge by the    |
|    |     |      | representative.                                |
|    |     |      |                                                |
| 20 | 112 | 7.5  | The last sentence: "A brief explanation of     |
|    |     |      | the meaning of the ratings if this has previ-  |
|    |     |      | ously been published by the rating provid-     |
|    |     |      | er" should be deleted. Not required under      |
|    |     |      | the current Prospectus Regulation for whole    |
|    |     |      | sale denominations and investors buying        |
|    |     |      | whole sale denominated debt know the           |
|    |     |      | meaning of the ratings in the rating provid-   |
|    |     |      | er's rating scale.                             |
|    |     |      |                                                |
| 21 | 204 | Ques | Q71: In respect of debt issuance we expect     |
|    |     |      | that corporates will continue to rely on       |
|    |     |      | funding via base prospectuses rather than      |
|    |     |      | on the equity-like secondary regime. The       |
|    |     |      | base prospectus regime in terms of funding     |
|    |     |      | programmes works very well.                    |
|    |     |      |                                                |
| 22 | 219 | Ques | Q74: In respect of debt issuance we expect     |
|    |     |      | that frequent issuers will continue to rely on |
|    |     |      | funding via base prospectuses rather than      |
|    |     |      | on the equity-like secondary regime. The       |
|    |     |      | base prospectus regime in terms of funding     |
|    |     |      | programmes works very well.                    |
|    |     |      |                                                |
| 23 | 220 | 252  | The new debt securities issued in the sec-     |
|    |     |      | ondary issuance may be issued subject to       |
|    |     |      | different legislation and may also be issued   |
|    |     |      |                                                |
|    |     |      | in a different form than the primary issu-     |

| 24 | 222 | 2      | <ul> <li>necessarily have to be a fungible tap issue issued on identical terms as the original issue.</li> <li>Risk factor 2 requires disclosure on "the expected size and timing of payments to holders". It does not seem possible for an issuer to make any statement to this effect as at the date of the relevant base prospectus.</li> </ul>                                             | Memo                                    |
|----|-----|--------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| 25 | 226 | 4.14   | The issuer may not control – even thoughcontractual terms to this effect can be in-cluded in trust deeds and similar docu-ments - whether the representative of theholders provide all relevant information anddocumentation free of charges. It does notseem fair that the issuer would have to re-imburse the investor for such charge by therepresentative. | September 11, 201Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
| 26 | 227 | 5.1.11 | The fourth and last section in 5.1.11 seemsto deviate from Article 17 (1)(b) in the newProspectus Regulation in providing the in-vestors with a walk-away right even if theissuer discloses the information in Article17(1)(b)(i) or (ii) which would otherwisemake the walk-away right requirement inArticle 17(1)(a) not applicable.                             |                                         |
| 27 | 231 | Ques   | Q79: Debt issues will likely continue to fundthemselves via base prospectuses andfunding programmes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                         |

SME Growth Prospectus ("GP") Paper:

General comment: Will the Commission encourage SME Growth Market listings and offerings by making amendments to other rules and regulations to motivate investors to buy instruments listed on a SME Growth Market in comparison to traditional MTF listed instruments?

| No | Page | Section | Comment                                       |
|----|------|---------|-----------------------------------------------|
| 1  | 20   | 0.000   |                                               |
| 1  | 20   | Ques    | Q2:                                           |
|    |      |         | From an equity issuer perspective, we         |
|    |      |         | agree with the proposal to allow issuers to   |
|    |      |         | define the order of information.              |
|    |      |         | Q3: The risk factors should be placed the     |
|    |      |         | same place as a traditional EMTN.             |
|    |      |         | Q4: A 3 page cover note is too limited for    |
|    |      |         | (i) legal disclaimers required by the un-     |
|    |      |         | derwriting banks, (ii) various legends relat- |
|    |      |         | ing to non-PR related legislation such as     |
|    |      |         | MAR stabilisation legend, PRIIPs selling re-  |
|    |      |         | striction and potentially MIFID II product    |
|    |      |         | governance related selling restrictions in-   |
|    |      |         | cluding, but not limited to, credit institu-  |
|    |      |         | tions regulatory capital issues such as Co-   |
|    |      |         | Cos, (iv) any "warnings" about the GP be-     |
|    |      |         | ing of a more alleviated disclosure and (iv)  |
|    |      |         | "forward looking statements" legend.          |
| 2  | 26   | 55      | Inclusion of published profit forecasts or    |
|    |      |         | estimates in retail debt or equity add a      |
|    |      |         | documentation burden on the issuer and        |

Memo

|   | 1     | 1       |                                               | 1                  |
|---|-------|---------|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------|
|   |       |         | consequential such inclusion should not       |                    |
|   |       |         | be a requirement, unless the forecasts and    |                    |
|   |       |         | estimates have been prepared and pub-         |                    |
|   |       |         | lished. Such requirements does not seem       |                    |
|   |       |         | to be included in MTF rule books which are    |                    |
|   |       |         | the listing venues which the Growth Mar-      |                    |
|   |       |         | ket will compete against.                     |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               |                    |
| 3 | 31    | 74-75   | Inclusion of KPIs should be optional. KPIs    |                    |
|   |       |         | are often also Alternative Performance        | Memo               |
|   |       |         | Measures and including KPIs could add         |                    |
|   |       |         | more documentation work and costs to          | September 11, 2017 |
|   |       |         | the preparation of the GP in comparison       | Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
|   |       |         | to MTF rule books.                            |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               |                    |
| 4 | 41    | 4.1.2   | The section refers to 4.1.1.(c) which is only |                    |
|   |       |         | relevant to equity securities which could     |                    |
|   |       |         | mean that 4.1.1.(c) could apply also to       |                    |
|   |       |         | non-equity.                                   |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               |                    |
| 5 | 42    | 4.2-4.3 | The sections refer to 4.1.1.(c) which is only |                    |
|   |       |         | relevant to equity securities which could     |                    |
|   |       |         | mean that 4.1.1.(c) could apply also to       |                    |
|   |       |         | non-equity.                                   |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               |                    |
| 6 | 49-50 | Ques    | Q5: KPIs should be optional                   |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               |                    |
|   |       |         | Q7: Inclusion of published profit forecasts   |                    |
|   |       |         | or estimates in retail debt add a docu-       |                    |
|   |       |         | mentation burden on the issuer. Such re-      |                    |
|   |       |         | quirement should not apply if the debt is     |                    |
|   |       |         | denominated in EUR 100,000 denomina-          |                    |
|   |       |         | tions.                                        |                    |
|   |       |         |                                               | -                  |

|    |     | Q8: No, would add to much documenta-tion work.                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |     | Q9: Yes, we agree. The issuer is already inpossession of basic information of majordirect and indirect shareholders throughthe requirement to submit and disclosedirect and indirect shareholdings to thecompetent authority.                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|    |     | Q10: Yes, it is paramount to the success ofthe GP that IFRS is not required. On theother hand, the issuer must have the flexi-bility to include IFRS and not national ac-counting standards, if relevant, in order toattract international investors. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|    |     | Q12: It may make it clearer to issuers if theGP disclosure requirements were set out inannexes for debt and equity respectively.                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 52 | 88  | Disclosure requirements with respect touse of proceeds should only be high-level.                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 57 | 1.7 | Breakdown of expenses and proceeds inprincipal intended use and order of priorityis too burdensome and could impose theissuer for liability risk e.g. if the priority sub-sequently has to be changed.                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 58 | 3.1 | Risk factor 3.1a) requires disclosure on "the expected size and timing of payments to                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|    | 57  | 57 1.7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 5288Disclosure requirements with respect touse of proceeds should only be high-level.571.7Breakdown of expenses and proceeds inprincipal intended use and order of priorityuse quently has to be changed.583.1Risk factor 3.1a) requires disclosure on "the |

Memo

|    |      |                                               | -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----|------|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |      | holders". It does not seem possible for an    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | issuer to make any statement to this effect   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | as at the date of the relevant base pro-      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | spectus or standalone prospectus.             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      |                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 70 | Ques | Q16: It may make it clearer to issuers if the |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | GP disclosure requirements were set out in    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | annexes for debt and equity respectively.     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      |                                               | Memo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 71 | 100  |                                               | Memo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|    |      | is too onerous on the issuer as that leaves   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | only a very few risk factors per "risk sub-   | September                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|    |      | ject" – in debt: issuer, guarantor(s) and the | Doc. no. 57                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    |      | instruments and in equity: the industry, the  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | issuer and the shares.                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 72 | 105  | It would not be expedient if any GP sum-      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | mary part regarding a guarantor which is      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | not an SME has to follow the "normal"         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | summary disclosure requirements in the        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | Prospectus Regulation for e.g. retail debt.   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | Such summary is also suggested to be lim-     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | ited to a maximum of 6 pages. It may be       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | hard to limit disclosure on the issuer, any   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | guarantor (or guarantors) and the instru-     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | ments to 6 pages if the regime under the      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | new Prospectus Regulation Article 7 is to     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      | also apply for GP summaries.                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    |      |                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | 71   | 71 100                                        | <ul> <li>issuer to make any statement to this effectas at the date of the relevant base pro-spectus or standalone prospectus.</li> <li>Ques</li> <li>Q16: It may make it clearer to issuers if theGP disclosure requirements were set out inannexes for debt and equity respectively.</li> <li>100</li> <li>Limiting the summary risk factors to only 10is too onerous on the issuer as that leavesonly a very few risk factors per "risk sub-ject" – in debt: issuer, guarantor(s) and theinstruments and in equity: the industry, theissuer and the shares.</li> <li>105</li> <li>It would not be expedient if any GP sum-mary part regarding a guarantor which isnot an SME has to follow the "normal"summary disclosure requirements in theProspectus Regulation for e.g. retail debt.Such summary is also suggested to be lim-ited to a maximum of 6 pages. It may behard to limit disclosure on the issuer, anyguarantor (or guarantors) and the instru-ments to 6 pages if the regime under thenew Prospectus Regulation Article 7 is to</li> </ul> |

2017 10-v1

| 13 | 80 | Ques | Q22: Limiting the summary risk factors to     |                                          |
|----|----|------|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
|    |    |      | only 10 is too onerous on the issuer as that  |                                          |
|    |    |      | leaves only a very few risk factors per "risk |                                          |
|    |    |      | subject" – in debt: issuer, guarantor(s) and  |                                          |
|    |    |      | the instruments and in equity: issuer, the    |                                          |
|    |    |      | shares and the industry.                      |                                          |
|    |    |      | Q23: In debt: No, managers will most likely   |                                          |
|    |    |      | require a subscription/underwriting           |                                          |
|    |    |      | agreement in their own interest according     | Memo                                     |
|    |    |      | to internal underwriting policies. In equity  |                                          |
|    |    |      | markets all IPOs extends to be (regardless    | Cardonala ar 11, 0017                    |
|    |    |      | of the size of the issuer) subject to under-  | September 11, 2017Doc. no. 573310-v1 |
|    |    |      | writing however, sometimes only on a best     |                                          |
|    |    |      | efforts basis.                                |                                          |
|    |    |      | Q24: KPIs should only be optional but if in-  |                                          |
|    |    |      | cluded by the issuer.                         |                                          |
|    |    |      | Q25: Inclusion of published profit forecasts  |                                          |
|    |    |      | or estimates in retail debt add a docu-       |                                          |
|    |    |      | mentation burden on the issuer. Such re-      |                                          |
|    |    |      | quirement should not apply if the debt is     |                                          |
|    |    |      | denominated in EUR 100,000 denomina-          |                                          |
|    |    |      | tions.                                        |                                          |
|    |    |      |                                               |                                          |
|    |    |      |                                               |                                          |

Kind regards

Stefan Gotfredsen Manager at Finance Denmark

